

Ongoing Coverage: What's Next for West Virginia?

Watch the 2014 West Virginia History Bowl

West Virginia Morning

8:21 AM THU MAY 1, 2014

Solutions for Ending Population Decline, DEP's Public Comment Process, & Richwood's Ramp Revival

By DAVE MISTICH (/PEOPLE/DAVE-MISTICH)

9:51 | 15:10

With an expected population decline and negative stereotypes surrounding young people who choose to stay in the state, we hear a few proposed solutions for the issue. Evan Hansen of Downstream Strategies talks about the Department of Environmental Protection's public comment period for above-ground storage tank regulation. Also, Richwood sees a revival with their annual Feast of the Ramson.

<http://mediad.publicbroadcasting.net/p/wvpr/files/201309/wvmorning.jpg>

TAGS: West Virginia Morning (/term/west-virginia-morning) podcast (/term/podcast)

Radio \(/term/radio\) ramps \(/term/ramps\) Richwood \(/term/richwood-0\) Downstream Strategies \(/term/downstream-strategies\) Evan Hansen \(/term/evan-hansen\) Department of Environmental Protection \(/term/department-environmental-protection\) Public Comment \(/term/public-comment\) Elk River Chemical Spill \(/term/elk-river-chemical-spill\)

Related Content:

---

West Virginia Morning

How's Our Air?, Stereotyping Young West Virginians That Stay, & A Berkeley Springs Quilt

West Virginia Morning

Huntington Spurs Small Business, Keeping Young People in the State, & Appalachian Food \(/post

---

RELATED PROGRAM:

- West Virginia Morning \(/programs/west-virginia-morning\)