

Ongoing Coverage: Valentine's Day Children's Book DriveLatest on the Chemical LeakSchool Delays & CancellationsWest Virginia Morning

10:56 AM TUE JANUARY 21, 2014

Gov. Tomblin Outlines Bill to Strengthen DEP, Consultants Critique Chemical Safety Bill, & More

By DAVE MISTICH (/PEOPLE/DAVE-MISTICH)Listen

16:50

Governor Tomblin explains proposed legislation to protect water supplies from potential chemical leaks, the House of Delegates passes a bill that increases penalties for littering and honors the life of former Delegate Joe Talbott, environmental consultants Downstream Strategies critique proposed legislation that hopes to prevent another water crisis, and the West Virginia Schools for the Deaf and Blind updates their curriculum and allows some students to attend on a temporary basis.

<http://201309/mediad.publicbroadcasting.net/p/wvpr/files/201309/wvmorning.jpg>
Enlarge image (<http://mediad.publicbroadcasting.net/p/wvpr/files/201309/wvmorning.jpg>)

TAGS: West Virginia Morning (/term/west-virginia-morning) podcast (/term/podcast)